

WHAT IS IT?

GreenWood Handscraped Bamboo is 100% MOSO Bamboo that is harvested from the exclusive Anji Mountain Region of China and carefully selected at the peak of maturity between 5 to 6 years. The core of this product is GreenWood's unique TruGreen Advantage core. This core is 100% engineered MOSO bamboo in a cross-fillet format with special "thread" that intertwines each individual fillet. This "thread" allows for slight expansion and contraction in the core as well as increased precision in the manufacturing process. Overall, the TruGreen core construction provides the most stable platform on the market while still maintaining its status as 100% Rapidly Renewable Resource.
